Membership Criteria

An organisation may apply to join as a full member of Coast & Moors Voluntary Action if it meets all the following criteria:

- has clear aims consistent with our mission and is committed to the furtherance of our objects
- operates in part or all of the Borough of Scarborough, including Whitby and Filey and the surrounding areas
- is a voluntary group, community group, club, society or registered charity that has primarily social objectives
- has a clear decision-making mechanism, for example a committee, board or steering group
- has a set of rules or a constitution or is working towards having these
- keeps financial records and has a bank account in the group's name (if applicable)
- is committed to the promotion of equality and diversity within its organisation and in the delivery of its services

An organisation may apply to join as an associate member of Coast & Moors Voluntary Action if it does not meet the criteria for full membership above but wishes to support us in achieving our objects. Associate members may for example be: statutory bodies (or be controlled by statutory bodies); for-profit, commercial businesses; party political organisations; organisations working outside Scarborough Borough.

Company Limited by Guarantee (No. 3330062) and a Registered Charity (No. 1061713)
